Registration and Payment

To receive the early registration rate, please register using the attached form, or register online, by July 31, 2012. Additional forms can be downloaded at www.shms.edu. There is no phone registration, but you may email vatican2renewal@shms.edu, or call 313-883-8556, with any questions prior to the conference.

The conference welcome desk will be in the first floor lobby inside the main entrance, where you will pick-up your conference packet and name tag. On-site registration will be available but at a higher rate of $75. Make check/money order payable to Sacred Heart Major Seminary.

Presentations and Meals

The keynote addresses will be held in the gymnasium on the first floor. Workshops will be in nearby classrooms. Lunch will be served in the two parlors on the first floor. There will be signs and welcome guides to direct you.

Liturgies

Friday and Saturday’s liturgies will be celebrated in the main chapel on the first floor. Priests wishing to concelebrate Mass should bring an alb and stole.

Accommodations

There are no overnight rooms available at the seminary. Conference participants must make their own hotel accommodations.

Transportation

Conference participants must make their own transportation arrangements. Sacred Heart is located about eighteen miles from the Detroit Metropolitan Airport (I-94 in Romulus) and about three miles from the Amtrak train station (W. Baltimore, Detroit). There is no shuttle bus service between the airport and the seminary. Consider using Detroit Metro Sedan Service, 734-347-4007, Millennium Limousine Service, 888-238-0083 or ABC Cab, 734-591-3888. There are numerous car rental agencies at the airport.

Location

The two-day conference, Vatican Council II: Renewal for the Sake of Evangelization, will be held at Sacred Heart Major Seminary, 2701 Chicago Boulevard, Detroit, Michigan 48206, 313-883-8500 switchboard, 313-883-8556 conference information.

Sacred Heart's historic Gothic Revival building is set on a secured twenty-two acre campus near the Boston-Edison historic district in north central Detroit. The seminary is only one mile west of the Chicago Boulevard exit of the Lodge Freeway (M-10), and is easily reached from all parts of Metro Detroit using the major freeways.

Enter the campus through the gated main entrance on Linwood Avenue near the intersection of Chicago and Linwood. A map and driving directions are downloadable from our website, www.shms.edu.
Sacred Heart Major Seminary prepares candidates for the Roman Catholic priesthood for the Archdiocese of Detroit and for dioceses nationally and internationally. It also educates individuals for the permanent diaconate and lay ecclesial ministry.

The student body is richly varied: men and women, clergy and lay, resident seminarians and commuters, young, middle-aged and seniors. A variety of diploma and degree programs provide students a rigorous, thoroughly Catholic education that prepares them for selfless apostolic service.

Six endowed academic chairs support Sacred Heart’s programs, which include a Licentiate in Sacred Theology with a concentration in the New Evangelization, the first of its kind in the U.S. The MA in Theology and MA in Pastoral Studies also include concentrations in the New Evangelization.

EVANGELIZE IN THE SPIRIT OF THE SECOND VATICAN COUNCIL

To commemorate the fiftieth anniversary of the inauguration of the Second Vatican Council (1962-1965), Sacred Heart Major Seminary is hosting a conference to explore the significance of the council and the call for “renewal for the sake of evangelization.” This historic anniversary is a unique opportunity to explore the heart of the conciliar documents and be inspired to live the call of discipleship in new and profound ways.

Vatican II: Renewal for the Sake of Evangelization will open on Friday evening with a keynote address by The Most Rev. Allen H. Vigneron, Archbishop of Detroit. With his extensive experience as professor and bishop, he will explore the theological, liturgical and social movements that preceded the council and influenced the formulations of the early texts.

The second keynote address on Saturday morning will be offered by Dr. Ralph Martin, Director of the Graduate Programs in the New Evangelization and Consultor to the Pontifical Council for the Promotion of the New Evangelization. His presentation will focus on the impact of the inauguration of the council and the effect of its documents for renewal of the Church. The two keynote addresses will offer a substantial foundation and deeper appreciation of the documents that will be discussed in the afternoon workshops.

The workshops on Saturday afternoon will offer an intriguing choice of nine topics that will be rooted in the council’s documents, but also provide pathways for practical application for individuals and parishes. The workshop presenters are well known locally and nationally for their theological depth and their engagement in teaching, preaching and leading on the practical level.

The conference will have a rich spiritual dimension as well. Attendees are welcome to worship together at Evening Prayer on Friday and Saturday, and Morning Prayer and Mass on Saturday. The registration rate includes lunch on Saturday, so the body is fortified along with the spirit.
